

The LGBT Aging Project Invites You To

The New England Premiere of

HANNAH FREE

Starring Sharon Gless

THREE Opportunities to see this award-winning film:

- Sunday, Oct. 11, Noon
- Wednesday, Oct. 14, Noon
- Saturday, Oct. 17, Noon

All screenings will take place at The Art House Cinema, 214 Commercial Street, Provincetown

There will be a panel and discussion following each of the screenings.

Tickets: $10 Available at the door.

Advance Sale Tickets can be purchased online at www.lgbtagingproject.org

Questions: Call (617) 522-1292

LGBT aging project

Advocacy, Education and Outreach for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Seniors and Caregivers.

For more information visit us at www.lgbtagingproject.org

Sharon Gless, (Queer as Folk, Burn Notice, Cagney & Lacey) stars in the drama Hannah Free, a film about a lifelong love affair between an independent spirit and the woman she calls home. The film is the story of six decades in the life of a lesbian partnership. Directed by Wendy Jo Carlton. Written by Claudia Allen. Executive producers: Tracy Baim, Claudia Allen, Sharon Zurek

www.HannahFree.com